C. Causes of Action (You may attach additional pages alleging other causes of action and the facts supporting them if necessary.)

Count 1: The following civil right has been violated: Right to be free from racial profiling
(E.g., right to medical care, access to courts, due process, free speech, freedom of religion, freedom of association, freedom from cruel and unusual punishment, etc.)

Supporting Facts: [Include all facts you consider important to Count 1. State what happened clearly and in your own words. You need not cite legal authority or argument. Be certain to describe exactly what each defendant, by name, did to violate the right alleged in Count 1.]

On or about 10-23-09, Plaintiff HANNA and WITNESS ALMALEKI arrived at the San Diego Airport to catch an international flight. While in line to get their tickets issued, both men were asked to show their identification and subsequently arrested by the FBI. At no time would any particular FBI agent identify themselves by name when asked, but instead, referred to themselves as only "FBI agent".

At no time during the arrest process did either men resist, but instead, remained completely silent until they reached the security room at the airport.

After reaching the security room, PLAINTIFF inquired as to why he was being retained. He was informed that a fugitive from the State of Arizona who bore the same name as WITNESS ALMALEKI was being sought by several police agencies for a hit and run causing the death of another. The FBI agents stated that they were looking for a Middle Easterner, and as such, was racially profiled initially before his arrest in spite of the fact there was ample identification processes available to the FBI which could have in fact did alert them to the true identity of the plaintiff.

PLAINTIFF HANNA, while remaining handcuffed was informed by the FBI that while his friend bore the same name as the fugitive being sought, he somewhat fit the physical description.

During the initial arrest phase, it was determined by the FBI that PLAINTIFF HANNA was in-fact not the fugitive being sought from Arizona, and it was determined that HANNA was a U.S. citizen domiciled in San Diego, California. In spite of this, the FBI continued to hold plaintiff because he was of Middle Eastern descent.

PLAINTIFF HANNA an Iraqi-American was continually held against his will for approximately 5 hours, all the while his hands remained in handcuffs being his back.

At no time during the 5-hour detention period did PLAINTIFF HANNA protest or use foul or offensive language. PLAINTIFF HANNA did not raise his voice nor did he insist that legal representation be provided to him during this period.

Prior to HANNA's arrest, he was planning to travel abroad to the country of Iraq. HANNA carried with him several thousand dollars which he planned to use for personal reasons including shelter and food while in Iraq. The agents who held HANNA removed the money and counted it out and removed every article of clothing and personal items from his suitcase.

Also during the detainment, HANNA identified himself as a prior U.S. civil servant working at the 32nd street Naval Station.

During HANNA's detainment, his companion and WITNESS ALMALEKI was chained to the wall.

During the entire detainment process, HANNA reiterated that he was happy to answer all questions and would cooperate 110% so that the process could conclude soon.

In spite of HANNA's immediate identification, his verification of citizenship and his affiliation with the United States Government, he was not freed from his handcuffs for several hours based solely on the false identification which was prefaced on the racial profiling of the plaintiff as a Middle Easterner.

As a result of the racial profiling, PLAINTIFF has suffered severe emotional distress and other damages in an amount as stated herein.

Count 2: The following civil right has been violated: False Imprisonment

(E.g., right to medical care, access to courts,

due process, free speech, freedom of religion, freedom of association, freedom from cruel and unusual punishment, etc.)

Supporting Facts: [Include all facts you consider important to Count 2. State what happened clearly and in your own words. You need not cite legal authority or argument. Be certain to describe exactly what each defendant, by name, did to violate the right alleged in Count 2.]

On or about 10-23-09, Plaintiff HANNA and WITNESS ALMALEKI arrived at the San Diego Airport to catch an international flight. PLAINTIFF HANNA, while remaining handcuffed was informed by the FBI that while his friend bore the same name as the fugitive being sought, he somewhat fit the physical description.

During the initial arrest phase, it was determined by the FBI that PLAINTIFF HANNA was in-fact not the fugitive being sought from Arizona, and it was determined that HANNA was a U.S. citizen domiciled in San Diego, California. In spite of this, the FBI continued to hold plaintiff because he was of Middle Eastern descent.

PLAINTIFF HANNA an Iraqi-American was falsely imprisoned against his will for approximately 5 hours, all the while his hands remained in handcuffs being his back, and as such, has suffered severe emotional distress as a result of the intentional and or outrageous conduct of the FBI agents in holding Plaintiff far beyond a reasonable amount of time, especially after identifying the true identity of the plaintiff.

At no time during the 5-hour detention period did PLAINTIFF HANNA protest or use foul or offensive language.

PLAINTIFF HANNA did not raise his voice nor did he insist that legal representation be provided to him during this period.

Prior to HANNA's arrest, he was planning to travel abroad to the country of Iraq. In spite of HANNA's immediate identification, his verification of citizenship and his affiliation with the United States Government, he was not freed from his handcuffs at any time until he was eventually released whereby he left the airport and went home.

As a result of the false imprisonment by the FBI, PLAINTIFF has suffered severe emotional distress and other damages in an amount as stated herein.

Count 3: The following civil right has been violated: Intentional Infliction of Emotional Distress

(E.g., right to medical care, access to courts,

due process, free speech, freedom of religion, freedom of association, freedom from cruel and unusual punishment, etc.)

Supporting Facts: [Include all facts you consider important to Count 3. State what happened clearly and in your own words. You need not cite legal authority or argument. Be certain to describe exactly what each defendant, by name, did to violate the right alleged in Count 3.]

On or about 10-23-09, Plaintiff HANNA and WITNESS ALMALEKI arrived at the San Diego Airport to catch an international flight. In spite of this, the FBI continued to hold plaintiff because he was of Middle Eastern descent. In doing so, the FBI agents engaged in severe and outrageous conduct through their actions of holding the plaintiff far beyond what was reasonable or necessary to identify and then release the plaintiff.

PLAINTIFF HANNA an Iraqi-American was continually held against his will for approximately 5 hours, all the while his hands remained in handcuffs being his back. The agents, through their actions, intended to cause the plaintiff severe emotional distress since the time and type of containment far exceeded any reasonableness after the plaintiff's true identity was confirmed by the FBI.

At no time during the 5-hour detention period did PLAINTIFF HANNA protest or use foul or offensive language. PLAINTIFF HANNA did not raise his voice nor did he insist that legal representation be provided to him during this period.

Prior to HANNA's arrest, he was planning to travel abroad to the country of Iraq. HANNA carried with him several thousand dollars which he planned to use for personal reasons including shelter and food while in Iraq. As a result of the intentional infliction of emotional distress by the FBI, PLAINTIFF has suffered severe emotional distress and other damages in an amount as stated herein.

D. Previous Lawsuits and Administrative Relief

1. Have you filed other lawsuits in state or federal courts dealing with the same or similar facts involved in this case? ☐ Yes ☒ No.

If your answer is "Yes", describe each suit in the space below. [If more than one, attach additional pages providing the same information as below.]

(a) Parties to the previous lawsuit:

Plaintiffs: _____

Defendants: _____

(b) Name of the court and docket number: _____

(c) Disposition: [For example, was the case dismissed, appealed, or still pending?] _____

(d) Issues raised:

(e) Approximate date case was filed: _____

(f) Approximate date of disposition: _____

2. Have you previously sought and exhausted all forms of informal or formal relief from the proper administrative officials regarding the acts alleged in Part C above? [E.g., CDC Inmate/Parolee Appeal Form 602, etc.] ? ☐ Yes ☐ No.

If your answer is "Yes", briefly describe how relief was sought and the results. If your answer is "No", briefly explain why administrative relief was not sought.

E. Request for Relief

Plaintiff requests that this Court grant the following relief:

1. An injunction preventing defendant(s):
2. Damages in the sum of $ 350000
3. Punitive damages in the sum of $
4. Other: as any other just or equitable relief to be determined by the Court

F. Demand for Jury Trial

Plaintiff demands a trial by ☒ Jury ☐ Court. (Choose one.)

G. Consent to Magistrate Judge Jurisdiction

In order to insure the just, speedy and inexpensive determination of Section 1983 Prisoner cases filed in this district, the Court has adopted a case assignment involving direct assignment of these cases to magistrate judges to conduct all proceedings including jury or bench trial and the entry of final judgment on consent of all the parties under 28 U.S.C. § 636(c), thus waiving the right to proceed before a district judge. The parties are free to withhold consent without adverse substantive consequences.

The Court encourages parties to utilize this efficient and expeditious program for case resolution due to the trial judge quality of the magistrate judges and to maximize access to the court system in a district where the criminal case loads severely limits the availability of the district judges for trial of civil cases. Consent to a magistrate judge will likely result in an earlier trial date. If you request that a district judge be designated to decide dispositive motions and try your case, a magistrate judge will nevertheless hear and decide all non-dispositive motions and will hear and issue a recommendation to the district judge as to all dispositive motions.

You may consent to have a magistrate judge conduct any and all further proceedings in this case, including trial, and the entry of final judgment by indicating your consent below.

Choose only one of the following:

☐ Plaintiff consents to magistrate judge jurisdiction as set forth above.

OR

☒ Plaintiff requests that a district judge be designated to decide dispositive matters and trial in this case.
